

conveying messages of respect, understanding of personal choice, and patience as this new mask mandate introduces a different dynamic than what we have been used to since the beginning of the pandemic.

We want to ensure that Bridlemile remains a safe place for students and staff which includes anti-bullying and anti-biased stances. We must work together to make sure that our students understand the impacts that bullying and biased actions can have on one another.

Please continue to be mindful that If you are sick, or test positive for COVID-19, pi..
