

What's going on?

The device will be confiscated, collected by an administrator or designee, stored in a secure locker in the office, and recorded. On the first violation, a parent can authorize their child to provide this procedure, but the device must be picked up by _____