Healthy, Substance Free Learning Environments

It is not considered self-disclosure when a student admits substance use and/or requests assistance during the course of an investigation of possible substance use misconduct by that individual. Students may receive disciplinary consequences in conjunction with supports and services as appropriate for that student.

If a student discloses prohibited substance use in the course of an investigation into a situation in which they are the victim or in a role of support for the victim, they shall not be penalized for that use, and will be offered support and resources to encourage healthy choices.

The district supports differentiated resources and consequences, and in the case
